

I am strongly against altering New Jersey's "Do-Not Call" law. I think that businesses should not be legally allowed to intrude on a citizen's private home time in order to solicit to their economic gain. There are already more than enough public media through which they can solicit business; and in this era of instant messaging, consumers are fully aware of these media. We know where to look for what we want!!!